

Hi PTWs — Palouse Wine Tasters (aka The Palouse Enological Society),

Our opening event for the new tasting year is coming up. Everyone that attends is now a "member"; i.e. there are no membership fees. Also, please note that I will be using "PWT" as a start to all forthcoming announcements' email subject line (changing from Enology), so change any filters accordingly. I hope to see you all at this great event.

Fire and Wine... two powerful forces in the culinary world. Join the Palouse Wine Tasters on September 6 as we take advantage of the cooling weather to explore outdoor cooking and how it pairs with varietals from around the world. Enjoy a late summer evening with other enthusiasts around Shaun Freuden's beautiful fire pit, The Crop Circle. Play a lively game of bocce or enjoy the musical stylings of singer/guitarist Jill Freuden in an event sure to provide something for everyone.

As always, the wines are the highlight, and we've chosen a broad range of varietals to allow you to create your own pairings, perhaps finding a combination you'll take home to share with your friends. We plan to serve Sauvignon Blanc, Albarino, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Barbera D' Asti, Spanish and Sicilian red blends, and Petite Sirah.

For the fire side of the evening, PWT Board Members are preparing a bevy of dishes that incorporate fire in the cooking process and the precious smoke it creates. Salmon Smoked on Cherry Wood, Chicken Smoked on Maple, Grilled Marinated Mushrooms, Fire Roasted Potatoes with Romesco, Mediterranean-style Grilled Vegetables, Beef Grilled on an open fire pit, and Slow-smoked Pork are on the menu.

We are also very excited to feature local musician, Jill Freuden. Mostly known for her classical singing, Jill also sings/plays in a local band and will be singing a few songs in more of an alternative/folk style.

It will be a fun and relaxed evening exploring "Fire & Wine". We hope you can join us on Saturday, September 6. The event starts at 5:30pm at the Freuden home, 1535 NW State Street, Pullman. There is limited parking at the home and more parking on Janet Street. If you park on State Street, please avoid blocking the road. If you want to play bocce before the tasting starts, come at 5:00pm.
